At a meeting attended by twelve members of the Shanghai Western District Committee of the Chinese Communist Party in a straw hut in the rear of the Yung Yui (永裕) Cotton Mill, Kwong Foh Road (光復路), Chapei, between 8 a.m. and 9.30 a.m. December 25, 1932, the following resolutions were passed :-

- 1) That the workers of each factory in Western District appoint a representative to work with the Publication Department of the Western District Committee.
- 2) That a special group of 80 persons be organized for the purpose of dealing with Yellow Labour Unions and those members of the Kuomintang engaged in shadowing work by using "choppers" and "hand grenades".
- 3) That arrangements be made for the celebration of the resumption of Sino-Soviet relations by the holding of demonstrations (time and venue not stated).

The meeting was presided over by one Tsoong Chia Tsing (仲襄), an unemployed worker, who was formerly employed by the Dong Shing Cotton Mill, 181 Gordon Road.
